NOTICE

STANDARD BRIEFING SCHEDULES FOR INTERVENORS AND AMICI CURIAE

The court announces a change in the standard timing for briefs by intervenors and amici curiae to conform the court's practice to the uniform timing requirements set by the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure. To avoid repetition of factual statements and legal arguments made in the principal briefs, the Clerk's Office will continue to schedule briefs for intervenors and amici curiae after the principal brief of the party they support, but the standard interval will be shortened from the current 15 days to 7 days. Henceforth, standard briefing orders issued by the Clerk's Office will stagger the briefing so that intervenors and amici curiae file their briefs 7 days after the brief of the party they support. The Circuit's Handbook of Practice and Internal Procedures has been revised to reflect the new practice.
